

Manchester's Peter Street Kitchen wins 'Best Luxury Restaurant UK' at the British Restaurant Awards 2019

London, 7th June 2019 – Following the third annual British Restaurant Awards 2019 which took place on Wednesday evening in Holborn, the leading Manchester restaurant Peter Street Kitchen has been awarded the prestigious accolade of 'Best Luxury Restaurant' in the UK.

The contemporary Japanese and Mexican kitchen opened last October as the latest concept from Edwardian Hotels London, serving exquisitely prepared small plates alongside world-class wines, sake and cocktails, all set against a stunning backdrop in the heart of Manchester. It beat out tough competition from an array of acclaimed restaurants including Sexy Fish (London), The Fat Duck (Berkshire), H el ene Darroze at The Connaught (London), Claude Bosi at The Bibendum (London), The Black Swan (Oldstead), and others.

The British Restaurant Awards (BRA), one of the most leading prestigious awards ceremonies, provides an opportunity for customers and the public at large to nominate and vote for their best restaurants, chefs and culinary service in the UK.

Amir Jati, Director of Service Excellence at Edwardian Hotels London, comments:

"We are extremely honoured that Peter Street Kitchen has received the award for 'Best Luxury Restaurant' at the British Restaurant Awards 2019. Having relocated the entire Service Excellence team to Manchester for 6 months, the Peter Street Kitchen project was by far our most ambitious project to date. As a result, it has already become our most successful restaurant opening within Edwardian Hotels London.

In the lead up to an opening of this scale, it takes a lot of planning, team work, long hours, extended periods away from families and most of all, passion and ambition in order to make a project like this a success. You must live and breathe every part of the project from start to finish in order to truly deliver a luxury product. This of course includes the on-going world class service delivery from our extremely talented team. Having undergone 2 months of intensive training prior to launch, I must thank every single member of our Peter Street Kitchen team for making it that success that it has become.

As a result, Peter Street Kitchen continues to gain publicity in the media, maintains an impressive TripAdvisor rating and various award nominations. To receive this award in a category containing some of the UK's most iconic restaurants is a real privilege and a true testament to those who played a pivotal role in the opening of Peter Street Kitchen. On behalf of the entire team, we would like to thank everyone who voted for us in this highly prestigious award."
